Simone, we are honored to have you as our very first, L'Officiel Austria Hommes cover star!

What are your impressions of Vienna? Have you previously been to Vienna?

It is an honor to be the first ever cover star of L'Officiel Austria Hommes!

I'm happy to be here! In fact, this is my first visit to Vienna and it is a beautiful city. I am amazed by how immaculate the city is and how welcoming the fans have been.

How did you get into acting? Had it always been your dream career?

It was a bit of a shock really – I was at the height of my modelling career when I was contacted by a director on Instagram asking me to send him a casting tape for a role in a movie. At first, I thought it was a scam and I didn't reply! Luckily, he then contacted me again and invited me to go to Poland. I went there and the rest is history. It wasn't planned at all, but now, my dream is to become the best actor I can be.

On being a sex symbol: do you think that this is an easier burden to carry for men than for women? Do you ever get annoyed about the craze around your body and your looks?

It all depends on the character of the person you are talking about and how confident they are, no matter the sex. No, it doesn't annoy me. I see it as being part of my job. I work very hard to keep up my appearance and lead a healthy lifestyle.

You have a new movie out, called "Heaven in Hell". Tell us a little bit about your character in this movie – did playing Max come easily to you?

Max is a free spirit living his life to the extreme, until he meets a judge and falls in love with her – and then his life starts to change! It was not difficult to play Max's role as his character was created by myself alongside the movie's director.

Bathrobe, BOTTEGA VENETA, available at AMICIS

Let's talk about your breakthrough Role as Nacho, in "365 Days". Do you and Nacho have anything in common? Would you say you are also the softer, more sensitive type?

Nacho and I are both free spirits, we are lovers, and we are sensitive!

Let's talk about sex: what advice would you give other men, when it comes to love, sex and relationships?

My advice is to be yourself, be honest and be caring and don't hold back. We only live once and should live to the fullest.

Describe your personal fashion style. What item of clothing in your closet is the one you cannot live without?

I wouldn't say that I have a specific style. I change it up every day depending on my mood. Something that is an absolute staple in my closet is the leather jacket!

What is an achievement in your career that you dream about? Is there a particular role you would love to play or a particular brand that you really want to work with?

My dream role is to play James Bond, but sadly, I'm not British (he laughs). I will be more than happy to settle to play the villain in the next Bond movie. A dream brand that I would love to work with is Tom Ford.
