

The Sisley Spa is located on the second floor and provides a haven of peace in the middle of the city centre.

Above from left to right: Karolina Zubkova Mattes with Anna Znamensky.

Sisley X L'Officiel Austria

Finally, a Maison Sisley opens its doors in Vienna, bringing not only its luxurious cosmetic products, but also a high-end Sisley Spa, to our capital. To celebrate the opening, L'Officiel Austria invited an illustrious circle of guests to a Ladies' Evening at Sisley's new home, in the heart of Vienna's city centre.

By ANNA ZNAMENSKY

The Maison Sisley welcomes its guests with timeless moments of well-being.

La Maison Sisley is a place that guarantees the ultimate in relaxation and pleasure. La Maison Sisley was designed to reflect the artistic and cultural universe of its founding family, d'Ornano. Here, highly effective products made from the purest plant extracts and essential oils meet unique know-how and a very special artistic aesthetic. The store, together with The Sisley Spa, offer the opportunity to experience unusual care rituals and a haven of peace in the middle of the city. L'Officiel Austria and Anita Marschalek, PR Director at Maison Sisley Austria, welcomed their female guests with a supporting programme, including a hair analysis station, a flash make-up station, and a raffle with a chance to win a wonderful prize. During the evening, canapes and champagne were served in fine porcelain cups from Augarten, whilst the guests were able to explore the new world of La Maison Sisley. We thank our guests for a wonderful evening in good company.

Exclusive goodie bags awaited guests.

Here, highly effective products made from the purest plant extracts and essential oils meet expertise and a distinctive aesthetic.

Images provided by: © Stefan Brandstätter

From left to right: Yevgeniya von Grablowitz, Elena Kondratiuk, Yuliia Ignatchenko and Rita Sabo with Editor-in-Chief of L'Officiel Austria, Anna Znamensky.